

Geography Report

Find out More About the Country of Greece

Land:

- Greece has many islands, lots of coastline, and is made up of 80% mountains or hills
- The highest mountain in Greece is Mount Olympus
- Size is 50,949 square miles
- Greece is the 95th largest country in the world
- Greece is located in Europe

Resources:

- Greece has many crops, including grapes, olives, tobacco, corn, and wheat.
- Greece has a few natural minerals including nickel, petroleum, and aluminum.

Government:

- The official language of Greece is Greek.
- The capital city of Greece is Athens.
- Greece has a unitary parliamentary republic.
- Greece has a president, a prime minister, and a parliament speaker

Fun Facts:

- Greece is the sunniest country in the world, with 300 sunny days every year.
- Greece has more archaeological museums than any other country in the world.
- Greece has over 6,000 islands
- Over 33 million tourists visit Greece every year

Now, it's your turn. Take all the facts above and create a geography report. Remember, it is important to group facts together that belong together. Also, don't forget an introduction to tell the reader that your report is about Greece! Your report should be around 2-3 paragraphs long.